

THE THANKSGIVING MEAL

[1. _____] invited everyone over to make Thanksgiving dinner together. He/she was excited to share his/her “legendary”, and quite [2. _____] recipe that required marinating the turkey in thick [3. _____] for exactly [4. _____] minutes.

[1. _____] cleared counter space by swooping all the [5. _____] onto the floor and arranged little jars of [6. _____] in neat lines. [7. _____] was one of the first to arrive and was in charge of dessert. He/she said ‘Instead of a classic pumpkin pie this year I’ve gone for a tangy [8. _____] pie instead!’ Next [9. _____] arrived, the [10. _____] one of the group. He/she shared a fun fact: “Did you know, traditionally turkey wasn’t served at thanksgiving, it used to be steamed [11. _____], served in a cast-iron [12. _____].

Next came [13. _____], with a yam casserole, topped with a lattice of toasted [14. _____] and a drizzle of spiced [15. _____] syrup. Finally, [16. _____] came with the drinks, a few bottles of [17. _____], with little [18. _____] to garnish the glasses.

Everyone sat down to eat. [1. _____] didn’t have a table big enough for everyone so they all sat around the [19. _____] instead. [1. _____] clinked his/her glass with a [20. _____] and gave a toast. “I am thankful you are all here, May the next year bring us more [21. _____], fewer [22. _____], and the kind of surprises that make us say, ‘I never expected [23. _____], but I’m glad it happened.’” Everyone clapped and tucked into their thanksgiving meal.
