

Camping Mad Lib

[1_____] had been wanting to go on a camping trip for a long time and invited [2_____] and [3_____] to go camping in [4_____] for just [5_____] night/s.

So they packed their bags and jumped in the [6_____].

After [7_____] hours of travelling, they arrived at the campsite. “It’s [8_____]!” exclaimed [3_____]. [2_____] then picked out the [9_____] place to put up their tent.

[1_____] had brought a brand-new tent that used the latest technology. Instead of using poles to prop up the tent, it used thin [10_____]. They put up the tent in [11_____] minutes and then celebrated with a cold drink of [12_____].

Later on, [3_____] decided to start making a campfire. [3_____] was known to be the smartest of the three and suggested that to improve the fire, instead of kindling, they could actually use small chopped-up pieces of [13_____] and light the fire using a hot [14_____]. [1_____] was impressed to see the biggest fire roaring that they had ever seen and gave [3_____] a pat on the [15_____].

As they sat around the campfire, [2_____] told them a scary ghost story about a/an [16_____] ghost that was haunting a [17_____]. The ghost was holding [18_____] when it jumped out of a [19_____] and scared the people staying at the [17_____]. It took [1_____] and [2_____] [20_____] hours to get to sleep that night.

The next morning they decided to go home early and pack up. [1_____] couldn’t wait to get out of there and had packed up everything and into the [6_____] in under [21_____] minutes. “Wow,” said [2_____], looking [22_____]. They then travelled off home [23_____] with how [24_____] their camping trip together had been.
