

Hanukkah at Grandma's

Every year, we celebrate the first night of Hanukkah at Grandma [1. _____]'s old house on [2. _____] Street. As soon as we enter, the scent of [3. _____] latkes fills the air, making our stomachs [4. _____].

She has a unique tradition: instead of a regular menorah, she lights [5. _____] arranged in the shape of the Star of David. She says it reminds her of her childhood in [6. _____].

After lighting the [5. _____] and singing [7. _____], we sit around the [8. _____] to exchange gifts. Last year, she gave me a [9. _____] dreidel made of [10. _____], which I cherish dearly.

But the best part is her storytelling. She shares tales of [11. _____], adventures with [12. _____], and how she once celebrated Hanukkah with just a [13. _____] and a [14. _____].

As we leave, stuffed with [15. _____] sufganiyot and carrying bags of [16. _____], we always feel a deep connection to our traditions that make Hanukkah so special.
