

Travel Mad Lib

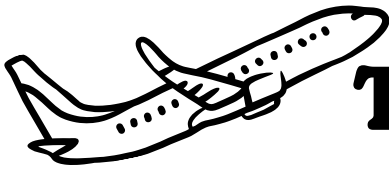

[1_____] had just finished studying to be a [2_____] but wanted to take a year off to travel. So he/she booked a flight to [3_____] with [4_____] and after [5_____] hours they arrived.

They stayed in an old cosy [6_____] that had a/an [7_____] courtyard. The first thing they did was go out to try the local food. [4_____] really wanted to try the [8_____] sausage with [9_____] sauce as it was a well-known delicacy.

The next day they went to see the historic landmarks like the [10_____] tower of [11_____] and the [12_____] [13_____] bridge. “[14_____]!” exclaimed [1_____] in [15_____] and excitement.

In the evening they went out to try some of the local wine. The wine makers explained that the wine is made the same way it was made [16_____] ago. To make it they would put the grapes in a big [17_____] and then squeeze out the juices using their [18_____] and also using a heavy [19_____]. After [20_____] glasses of the wine, it was definitely time for bed.

It had been an amazing travel journey already, but they still had plans to go [21_____] in [22_____] and, more importantly, [23_____] in [24_____]. [1_____] bought a small [25_____] from the gift shop to remember all of the [26_____] times [1_____] and [4_____] had during their travels together.
